NOTE FOR: Ted Price

FROM:

Office of Congressional Affairs

SUBJECT: Visit of Staffers from Post Office and Civil Service Committee

I talked with the Pierce Myers at the Post Office and Civil Service Committee. De Yulia, Chief of Staff and two other Myers believes we need on our side--Bob Lockhart, General Counsel and Allen Lopatin, Dep. Counsel--are away until Congress reconvenes after Labor Day. He definitely wants to come out here and will arrange for Labor Day week.

I thought we would talk with them about the pay/compensation initiative in the morning and then take them to lunch in the Executive Dining Room. You, me, [] and, if they are available, Mr. Donnelly and/or Mr. Mahoney can join us for lunch or at least arrange to greet them somewhere along the way. Any one else?
